

Sandwich Leave Policy

FRISTINE INFOTECH PVT LTD

Effective Date	1st January 2026
Approved By	Pratik Modi
Version	1.0

The Fristine Infotech Pvt. Ltd. Sandwich Holiday Policy outlines the rules applicable when an employee takes leave before and after a weekend, public holiday, or company-declared holiday. The policy aims to ensure fairness and clarity in leave management. Under this policy, any leave taken adjacent to a non-working day on one side or both sides will result in the intervening or adjacent non-working day(s) being counted as leave, unless a prior exemption has been approved. The objective of this policy is to ensure fairness, prevent misuse of leave, and maintain business continuity.

1. Definition of Sandwich Leave

Sandwich Leave refers to a situation where an employee applies for leave either immediately before or immediately after, or both before and after, a weekly off, public holiday, or company-declared holiday. In such cases, the non-working day(s) falling in between or adjacent will also be treated as leave days.

2. Applicability

This policy applies to all permanent, contractual, and probationary employees of Fristine Infotech Pvt. Ltd., unless otherwise specified in their employment contract.

3. Policy Guidelines

- If an employee takes leave on the day preceding and the day succeeding a weekly off or holiday, the intervening holiday(s)/weekly off(s) will be counted as leave.
- If leave is taken only on one side of the holiday or weekly off, the holiday/weekly off will still be treated as leave.
- Approved leave types applicable under this policy include Paid Leave, Compensatory Leave, and Sick Leave (subject to medical proof, if required).

4. Exceptions

- Maternity, Paternity, Bereavement, or Compensatory Off leaves are excluded from the Sandwich Leave policy.

- Official duty, business travel, or training days will not be considered as leave for sandwich calculation.
- Any statutory requirement overriding this policy will take precedence.

5. Advance Approval for Exemption

- Employees who wish to seek exemption from the Sandwich Leave Policy must obtain prior written approval from their Reporting Manager (RM).
- Such approval must be requested at least two (2) months in advance of the intended leave dates.
- Exemptions will be granted only on a case-to-case basis, subject to business requirements and managerial discretion.
- In the absence of prior RM approval, this Sandwich Leave Policy will automatically apply, and the relevant weekly off(s) or holiday(s) will be counted as leave.
- Any approval requested or granted after the leave has been availed will not be considered valid for exemption.

6. Misuse and Disciplinary Action

Any misuse or deliberate manipulation of leave to bypass this policy may result in disciplinary action as per the organization's code of conduct.

7. Policy Review and Amendment

The organization reserves the right to amend, modify, or withdraw this policy at its discretion. Any changes will be communicated to employees in advance.
